

Susan Migliorisi, Faith Formation Coordinator

A parishioner of St. Anselm's since 2013, Susan Migliorisi has been involved with the Faith Formation program as a parent, committee volunteer and teacher. She is excited to take on the role of Faith Formation coordinator this year. Originally from Connecticut, Sue graduated from Boston College in 1993 with degrees in English and Secondary Education. After graduate school, also at Boston College, Sue went on to work in higher education administration at Loyola University Chicago, Dean College, Wentworth Institute of Technology and has been an Associate Director of Undergraduate Admission at Boston College since 1999. Sue is a Girl Scout Troop Leader, volunteer with Kids with a Cause, a community service club at the Potter Road School in Framingham and a diehard BC Eagles and NY Yankees fan. She feels privileged to be working with the entire St. Anselm's community to provide a Faith Formation program that fosters spiritual growth through engaging, creative and child-centered activities and instruction.
